Approved:	Cynthia K. Walcott, Deputy Commissioner	Effective: 4/11/2011
Supersedes:	Child Abuse and Neglect: Definitions No. 50	Dated: 7/1/2009

Purpose

To provide statutory and legal definitions to guide staff in accepting and substantiating reports of child abuse and neglect. The policies in this section of the manual contain further information and policy guidance on child safety interventions made by the division.

Definitions

Abused or neglected child is a child whose physical health, psychological growth and development or welfare is harmed or is at substantial risk of harm by the acts or omissions of his or her parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare. Also, a child who is sexually abused or at substantial risk of sexual abuse by any person (33 VSA § 4912(2)).

Assessment means a response to a report of child abuse or neglect that focuses on the identification of the strengths and support needs of the child and the family, and any services they may require to improve or restore their well-being and to reduce the risk of future harm. The child and family assessment does not result in a formal determination as to whether the reported abuse or neglect has occurred. (33 VSA § 4912(12)).

Assessment Record means a summary of information gathered during the assessment phase which includes an evaluation of safety of the subject child and other children living in the same environment; identification of family strengths; resources; service needs; the recommended plan of services.

Child is an individual under the age of majority (33 VSA 4912 (l)).

Child in need of care and supervision (CHINS) (33 VSA § 5102(3) is a child who:

- A) has been abandoned or abused by the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. A person is considered to have abandoned a child if the person is: unwilling to have physical custody of the child; unable, unwilling, or has failed to make appropriate arrangements for the child's care; unable to have physical custody of the child and has not arranged or cannot arrange for the safe and appropriate care of the child; or has left the child with a care provider and the care provider is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child, the whereabouts of the person are unknown, and reasonable efforts to locate the person have been unsuccessful.

- B) is without proper parental care or subsistence, education, medical, or other care necessary for his or her well-being;
- C) is without or beyond the control of his or her parent, guardian, or custodian; or
- D) is habitually and without justification truant from compulsory school attendance.

Child care facility is any place or program operated as a business or service on a regular or continuous basis, whether for compensation or not, whose primary function is protection, care, and supervision of children under 16 years of age outside their homes for periods of less than 24 hours a day by a person other than a child's own parent, guardian, or relative, as defined by rules adopted by the department for children and families, but not including a kindergarten approved by the state board of education. (33 VSA Chapter 35 § 4902 (2)).

Child protection registry means a record of all investigations that have resulted in a substantiated report on or after January 1, 1992. (33 VSA § 4912(14)).

Child Safety Intervention means a child abuse or neglect investigation or assessment.

Disfigurement is that which impairs or injures the beauty, symmetry, or appearance of a person or thing; that which renders unsightly, misshapen, or imperfect, or deforms in some manner (Black's Law Dictionary).

Domestic Violence is a pattern of assaultive and coercive behaviors including physical, sexual, psychological, emotional, and economic coercion that an adult or adolescent uses to obtain and maintain control over an intimate partner.

Educational Neglect is not defined in Vermont statute. Referrals for “educational neglect” will be assessed according to Policy 60 on Juvenile Proceedings Act Assessments. If “substantiated”, educational neglect is not entered into the Child Protection Registry.

Emotional maltreatment is a pattern of malicious behavior which results in impaired psychological growth and development (33 VSA § 4912(7)).

Exploitation is taking unjust advantage of another person for one's own gain.

Harm (33 VSA § 4912(4)) can occur by:

- physical injury or emotional maltreatment; or,
- failure to supply the child with adequate food, clothing , shelter or health care,

- including medical or non-medical remedial health care permitted or authorized under state law (33 VSA Chapter 49);
- abandonment

Incest is sexual relations between people who cannot marry under Vermont statute. According to 15 VSA, Chapter 1, Section 1 “A man shall not marry his mother, grandmother, daughter, granddaughter, sister, brother’s daughter, sister’s daughter, father’s sister or mother’s sister”. Also, “A woman shall not marry her father, grandfather, son, grandson, brother, brother’s son, sister’s son, father’s brother or mother’s brother.” (Note: First cousins may marry in Vermont.)

Impair is to weaken, to make worse, to lessen in power, diminish, or relax, or otherwise affect in an injurious manner (Black’s Law Dictionary).

Investigation means a response to a report of child abuse or neglect that begins with the systematic gathering of information to determine whether the abuse or neglect has occurred and, if so, the appropriate response. An investigation shall result in a formal determination as to whether the reported abuse or neglect has occurred. (33 VSA § 4912(16)).

Investigation Record means a summary of information gathered during the investigation phase which includes the nature, extent and cause of any abuse or neglect; the identity of the person alleged to be responsible for such abuse or neglect; consideration of the physical and emotional condition of other children living in the same environment and a formal determination as to whether the reported abuse or neglect has occurred.

Malicious Punishment includes but is not limited to throwing, kicking, burning, biting or cutting a child or striking a child with a closed fist or an object; interfering with a child’s breathing; threatening a child with a weapon; purposely giving a child poison, alcohol, or dangerous, harmful or controlled substances not prescribed for the child by a practitioner, in order to control or punish the child; purposefully giving a child a substance that substantially affects the child’s behavior, motor coordination, or judgment or that results in sickness or internal injury, or subjects the child to medical procedures that would be unnecessary if the child were not exposed to the substances; unreasonable physical confinement or restraint including tying, caging, or chaining; physically abusing a child under the age of 3, including shaking; physically abusing a child of any age who is non-verbal or non-ambulatory; allowing a child to be exposed to methamphetamine production.

Member of the clergy means a priest, rabbi, clergy member, ordained or licensed minister, leader of any church or religious body, accredited Christian Science practitioner, person performing official duties on behalf of a church or religious body that are recognized
